

INTERNATIONAL DATA TRANSFER

June 2026

Your data is always processed in a secure environment in accordance with the applicable data protection regulations.

To this end, we generally seek to prevent your data from leaving the European Economic Area (hereinafter, referred to as the “EEA”). However, in individual cases, it may be necessary to transfer your data to the countries listed below so that our service providers can provide us with certain services.

As explained in detail in our Privacy Policy, in such cases, data is transferred exclusively to countries that ensure an adequate level of data protection comparable to that of the EU or where appropriate safeguards are provided.

The following is a list of service providers located outside the EEA that may access and process your personal data (international data transfer), as well as the destination country and the measures taken to protect such data:

Service Provider	Destination Country	Level of Protection
Tealium	USA	Standard Contractual Clauses and EU-U.S. Data Privacy Framework
Google Analytics	USA	Standard Contractual Clauses and EU-U.S. Data Privacy Framework

You can also consult the Cookie Policy for a list of third parties that receive personal data from the Openbank website through cookies.
